The Cecilian.

F a concern of established reputation and high standing makes a positive statement in regard to its instruments, and offers to demonstrate the truth of that statement to your satisfaction, is it not worth your while to investigate the matter? We believe that it is, and that if you are interested in the subject of piano players you will investigate; therefore, we state positively and emphatically that the Cecilian is the best piano player in the market today. It is just what we claim it is, because its touch is non-mechanical; it is the easiest to pump; it gives the operator perfect control of both bass and treble; it admits of emphasis being placed on any note; it permits an instant change from pianissimo to fortissimo and vice versa; its possibilities in tone shading are unlimited; its powers of expression are bounded only by the feelings of the operator. These facts we are ready to prove, if you will give us an opportunity. The price of the Cecilian is $250.00. It is sold on time payments if desired.

The Perfect Piano Player,

For Monday we offer a new Upright Piano and a slightly used "Cecilian," including 6 rolls of music, for.. $375

Mrs. Van Rensselaer is another visitor here

The British embassy was thronged yesterday from 4 to 6 with one of the largest gatherings in its history. The occasion was a very happy one as both the Ambassador and Lady Herbert are great favorites and the old time charm of an invitation from their embassy is likely to be invested with double interest while they preside over it. Lady Herbert had the assistance of her niece, Miss May Goelet, her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund L. Baylies of New York and Mrs. Sidney Waterlow, and all the men of the embassy staft. Two personages much admired and observed were the young sons of the Ambassador and Lady Herbert. A collation was served in the dining room and an orehesta played. The entire diplomatic corps and resident and official society generally were represented in the gathering.

The marriage of Miss Henrietta Sands, daughter of Mr. Francis P. B. Sands, to Capt. Edward Anderson, U. S. A., which will take place at noon on Tuesday, January 20, at the family residence, 1222 Connecticut avenue, will be attended only by the immediate relatives of the couple, and will be followed at 12:30 o'clock by a small reception for their personal frands. Col. Hine will be best man, and the bride's sister, Miss Frances Sands, will be maid of honor. Miss Jane McCue Sands, the schoolgirl sister of the bride, and her young cousin, Miss Henrietta Fitch, will be ribbon bearers. There will be two groomsmen also, selected from Capt. Anderson's associates in the army.

The marriage of Miss Marion Cockrell and Mr. Edson T. Gallaudet will take place February 14 at the Church of the Covenant, and will be followed by a reception at Rauscher's, Senator Cockrell's home not being large enough to accommodate the company to be invited. Invitations for the ceremony at the church will be, of course, even more numerous, and an event of such Mrs. Geo. W. Smith, wife of Representawidespread interest will necessarily be among the most brilliant of the winter. Miss Anna Ewing Cockrell will be maid of honor. The only regret will be that the wedding will remove from the capital one of the most charming of young women, as Mr. Gallaudet will take his bride to Philadelphia, where his home has been for

In Memoriam. EMMONS. In loving but sad remembrance of my departed wife, ELIZABETH S. EMMONS, who departed this life four years ago, January 12, 1899.

She found in duty highest meed, While unseen angels near her trod; An almoner for souls in need, She passed through human love to God. She passed through By her bereaved husband, RICHARD EMMONS,

FOSTER. In loving remembrance of GEORGIA V. FOSTER, who departed this life three years ago today, January 10, 1900. day, January 10, 1900.

We watched thy dear form fading,
But little did we know
That on the sad tomorrow
Thy soul from earth must go.
You are not forgotten, dear Georgie,
And never will you be,
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.
BY HER PARENTS.

HARRINGTON. In loving remembrance of our dear mother, CATHERINE HARRINGTON, who departed this life two years ago tomorrow —January 11, 1901. May she rest in peace.
BY HER CHILDREN.

We miss you, dearest mother; We miss your fond and gentle care; We miss you everywhere. The days are sad without you;
The nights are long and drear.
Our dreams, they are about you;
We miss you, mother dear.
BY HER DEVOTED DAUGHTER, MRS. P. GLEAR

JARRINGTON. In loving but sad remembrance of my beloved mother, CATHERINE HAR-RINGTON, who departed this life two years ago tomorrow—January 11, 1901.

Y HER DEVOTED HUSBAND, FORD W. MOXLEY, AND CHILDREN. SHORTER. Sacred to the memory of Mrs. PRIS-CILLA SHORTER, loving wife of Edward Shorter and devoted mother of Alice V., Mary E., Harry and Charles Shorter, who entered into rest two years ago today, January 10, 1901.

Since death our mother and us divide,
Thou dost not, Lord, our sorrow chide,
Or frown, our tears to see;
Restrain'd from passionate excess,
Thou bid'st us mourn in calm distress
For them that rest in Thee. We feel a strong immortal hope,
Which bears our mournful spirits up
Beneath their mountain load;
Redeemed from death, and grief, and pain,
We soon shall find our mother again
Within the arms of God.

Pass a few fleeting moments more
And death the blessing shall restore
That which he snatch'd away;
For us Thou wilt the summons send
And give us back our parted one
In that eternal day.
BY HER HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.
